

I am deeply concerned about the threat facing XM Radios first amendment rights. I often count on XM's instant weather and traffic service to safely travel to work in the Philadelphia area and other areas when travelling. Please do not allow an attempt to thwart competition in the the radio business to occur.